Commercial Design Consolidated (NSW) Pty Ltd
 (Commercial Design) has, since 1966, been in the business of supplying engineering personnel and services on both a contract for service and permanent basis.

Located on the lower North Shore, in the heart of the consultancy belt, Commercial Design places some of the industry's best and brightest individuals within Engineering Consultancies and Manufacturing companies. These businesses are pushing the envelope and shaping the future with a great emphasis on the use of new technologies.

The biggest challenge engineering based firms face is attracting and recruiting Talented Professionals to fill key positions. This has become increasingly more costly and difficult for companies to do on their own. Commercial Design offers their clients the resources necessary to search out and select the most qualified professionals.

Our network of Engineering based personnel recruiters keeps our clients well-informed and up-to-the-minute concerning the quality, experience and suitability of available candidates in all the relevant work disciplines at any given moment. This enables us to satisfy our clients every needs and, in so doing, guarantee our clients return business.
